

Fire service is a sacrifice—but from every ash, hope rises.

It's a hope that carries us to the next call, pulls our hearts to the engine, and reminds us that our work doesn't end when the flames die down.

Because every day, there's more we can do to protect, to serve, and to change lives.

ABOUT US

Healing a Burned Soul is a blog born from the hope of bringing light into the darkness—through honest stories and real-life encouragement.

My dream for Healing a Burned Soul is to share the Gospel of Jesus in the midst of life's trauma, offering hope where it feels impossible. Through advocacy, survivor support, and research there is change that can and will come. I believe that even when the soul is burned and broken, healing is possible—with love, truth, and gentle care. There is always light, even in the ashes.

Faith in the Line of Duty

FIREFIGHTER PRAYERS AND ENCOURAGEMENT

FIREFIGHTER PRAYER

When I'm called to duty, God,
Wherever flames may rage,
Give me the strength to save a life,
Whatever be its age.

Help me embrace a little child
Before it is too late,
Or save an older person from
The horror of that fate.

Enable me to be alert
To hear the weakest shout,
And quickly and efficiently
Put the fire out.

I want to fill my calling, Lord,
And give the best in me,
To guard my every neighbor
and
Protect his property.

And if, according to your will,
I am to lose my life,
God, bless with your protecting hand
My children and my wife/husband.

ENCOURAGEMENT IN REAL-LIFE

Personal Story

At just 4 years old, I suffered burns over more than half of my body. My Father, a former volunteer fireman, knew exactly what to do! With less than a 5% chance of survival, I fought through the odds to become who I am today. Along the way, I've met thousands of others with burn injuries and inspiring stories like mine. From house fires to car accidents to rescuing an animal, your work doesn't just save lives—it transforms them. Thank you for making a difference!

You May Never Know

You may never know the full story of the lives touched by the fire you just battled. But keep faith and hope alive, knowing that your efforts have made a meaningful difference for that family—no matter the outcome.
